Bl. 26 worn. Stripes of various widths in shades of rose and pink. Two pieces of woven work sewed together. SW CHIMAYO

2148-593 "Chief" patterned blanket, 58" x 64"; broad black and white
Bl. 4 stripes with narrow blue band on horizontal ends. Series of stepped blocks in corners in red, blue and white. Stepped block diamond in center with red square in middle of blue cross. Lazy lines. NAVAHO

2148-594 Bl. 41 — Blanket of handspun wool in white and shades of pinkish orange. Made in two pieces and sewed together. Edges frayed and ravelling. SW CHIMAYO

2148-595 Bl. 3 — Blanket in "Chief" style with wide black and white stripes and varying widths of red bands with narrower stripes of blue and yellow and blue and white within. Several shades of red used; most of the wool handspun. Appears to be quite old. Lazy lines. NAVAHO

2148-599 Bl. 10 — Very thick, frayed rug or blanket 42" x 56". Cotton warp; coarse weave in diagonal pattern. No lazy lines within which are typical of Navaho weaving. Background is dark orange with narrow stripes of dark drown, light orange and tan. Motif of alternating orange and brown parallelograms. Poor quality and in bad condition. PUEBLO

2148-600 Bag 8 — Bag 19" x 17" of multi-colored wool and cotton woven in stripes of geometric design. Method of weaving: warp suspended from horizontal cord. NE WOODLAND

2148-601 Bag ? — Bag of multi-colored wool with stripes in geometric pattern. Thick cording at top. Weaving same as above. NE WOODLAND

2148-602 CL. I 6 — Blanket 44" x 56" labeled "Moki" (Hopi) woman's dress but the lazy lines indicate it is Navaho. Wide center stripe of native black handspun wool. Broad red stripes of varying shades with black double diamonds of stepped blocks. Black crosses within diamonds near edges; blue crosses in second row of diamonds. Midsection very worn; edges frayed. NAVAHO

2148-603 Bl. 16 Rug of heavy commercial wool, 54" x 68"; lazy lines. Basic pattern red stripes, some with narrower orange and brown stripes within; others with two bands of multi-colored diamonds. Large diamond in center surrounded by other diamonds, all outlined in zigzag. Red, white, orange, yellow, gray, tan, white, purple and black. NAVAHO

2148-605 Bl. 24 Rug of heavy yarn, 34" x 54". Three very broad stripes of orangey red (decoration within) separated by two broad stripes of natural color wool. Lazy lines. Designs are diamond shaped, some with serrated edges; others are stepped parallelograms--pink, coral, brown, black. Middle stripe includes designs of bright yellow, tan, orange, and brown. NAVAHO

2148-611 Bl. 11 Heavy, well woven rug, 62" x 86". Rust colored wool tufts at corners. Large diamond in center--white, orange, rose, green, with narrow zigzag outline. Narrow bands of orange and white at horizontal edges. Large terraces rise to peak at center. Orange, rust, black, white, green, and yellow. Lazy lines. NAVAHO

2148-612
Bl. 2 Blanket 34 1/2" x 52 1/2"; red background with three zigzag vertical designs running length of blanket; green, yellow, and blue zigzags compose the larger pattern, outlined in natural colored wool. Border of narrow bands of blue and yellow; tufts at corners. NAVAHO

2148-613
Bl. 28 Very worn sarape, 40" x 87". Two pieces sewed together. Warp visible in many places. Brown vegetal dye, natural color wool slender bars with rounded ends interspersed in brown stripes. Large diamond of brown in center with small light figures. Red predominates and it may be bayeta. MEXICO

2148-614
Bl. 29 Saltillo serape, 48" x 80", woven in two sections with center vertical seam; edges bound in dark twill tape. Large diamond design in center with dark blue background filled with smaller diamonds of lighter blue and white triangles. Background of body of serape is white with serrated edged diamonds of the two shades of blue and white. Side borders in the two blues with small touches of white. Fine specimen. MEXICO

2148-615
Bl. 9 Saltillo serape, 41" x 76", made in two sections and sewed together in a vertical seam; narrow gold selvage edges; ends have narrow hem. Large diamond design runs horizontally across center. Predominant color: shades of mulberry red graduating to pink. Small figures within the diamonds are chartreuse, yellow, blue and black. Vertical zigzag stripes of outlined diamonds combine the same colors as above except blue is lacking. Border in mulberry shades and yellow and black on selvage edges. Beautiful work; some worn spots. MEXICO

2148-616
Bl. 46 Blanket, 65" x 96" including fringe at ends. Woven of harsh wool in vertical stripes of native black, blue and white. Blue designs of irregular shape appear in the white stripes. Plaid effect near end with narrow line of pale red running across. Two sections sewed in vertical seam. Possibly is jaspé-pattern dye technique. MESO AMERICA.

2148-617
Bl. 50 Modern Saltillo blanket, 37" x 88". Woven in one piece with cotton warp. Narrow multi-colored stripes run horizontally; wide bright turquoise stripe near ends and turquoise background surround center diamond composed of multi-colored smaller diamonds. MEXICO

2148-618
Bl. 42 Frayed blanket with fringed ends, 43" x 88". Cotton warp. Handspun wool for weft; possibly some vegetal dyed wool. Orangey-red is dominant color; it outlines center diamond with smaller diamonds within. Outlined in zigzag. Narrow stripes of lemon yellow, moss green, beige, and pale coral. Also a little lavender. MEXICO

2148-622 Bl. 17 — Badly worn saddle blanket, 21" x 31". Cotton warp; lazy lines; border brown; large oblong center design consists of series of bands with one straight side and the other multiple peaks intersecting those of adjoining band. Colors: orange, gold, blue, brown, red, and pinkish tweed. SW NAVAHO

2148-624 Bl. 57 — Blanket of handspun white wool in plain weave, 58" x 80". Large area embroidered in openwork technique in black and maroon wool. Narrow black bands, wider maroon with birds and floral design. Possibly Otomi, MEXICO

2148-625 Bl. 13 — Blanket bearing Lab of Anthropology tag Reg. Series 775, New Mexico. They report it is Sabinilla cloth, with all handspun wool embroidery. Colors: white, black, several shades of brown, two blues, light yellow and cream. Diamond motif used with several colors used in each. Provenience not given. ~~May be NORTHWEST COAST~~

2148-628 Bl. 6 Blanket of handspun wool, 76" x 64". Red and black; Woven in two pieces and sewed together in center vertical seam. Black, tan, red, yellow, and lavender stripes at ends. Tapestry weave design in some bands; similar designs in large red center diamond, outlined in black in which are small figures in red, white, and yellow. Oaxaca MEXICO

2148-631 Bl. 48 Finely handspun wool, closely woven, lightweight serape. Basic color orangey-red which is mottled in places indicating it may be vegetal dye. Beige, brown and orange stripes at ends. Body of serape is the orangey-red with scattered beige rounded bars. Center has boxed diamonds, some with serrated edges. Multi-colored: gold, orange, green, blues, white, and purple. Possibly Oaxaca MEXICO

2148-632 Bl. 40 Square of bright red wool, 24 1/4" x 25 1/2", woven in two sections and sewed together. Braided cord in loops at one edge. Design consists of jagged edged figures in green, blue, black, and pink with centers of contrasting color. Probably unfinished bag. ~~Unidentified~~
